Duke Sherman Blues Band to Perform Benefit
For the Maleno Family-to-Family Fund

The Erie community is invited to a benefit concert featuring the Duke Sherman Blues Band on Tuesday, June 30, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The band will perform in the parking lot of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, located at East 22nd and Reed streets. Free parking is available at Bayfront and State streets near the Erie Maritime Museum. EMTA shuttles will run to and from the concert.

Although the concert is free, a $5 donation is encouraged. Those donating $5 may enter to win one of only two commemorative plates signed by the cast of "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition." The plates are donated by Claytopia and can be seen on www.malenoextremehome.com. All proceeds will go to the Maleno Family-to-Family Fund, established by John Maleno and his family to support future building and renovation projects in Erie.

"We are really excited about this concert and appreciate the band donating its time," said John Maleno, founder and president of Maleno Development, the firm chosen to oversee the extreme building project. "We wanted to have a neighborhood get-together this week to thank the neighbors and community for supporting us and Duke Sherman is the perfect band for it. We are looking forward to meeting the neighbors we haven't met so far. They have been so supportive during this process."

To donate to the Maleno Family-to-Family fund and to learn more about the "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition" project in Erie, go to www.malenoextremehome.com.

About Maleno Development

Co-founded in 1976 by John Maleno and his wife, Lynn, Maleno Development began as a husband-and-wife building and remodeling operation in Erie, Pa. Since then, the company has built more than 1,000 homes and apartments in their hometown. Maleno Development has changed the face of many Erie areas by creating beautiful neighborhoods and residential communities on otherwise undeveloped lands. What started with the Calico Fields subdivision off of West 38th Street now includes 13 residential developments. Today, five of John Maleno's seven children, his sister and his son-in-law are part of what is now a full-service real-estate team that specializes in construction, land development, property management and real-estate sales.
